

—Quileute Tribe Resource Guide— Response to COVID-19

March 18, 2020

As the situation with COVID-19 continues to develop, the Quileute Tribe has suspended tribal operations, with the exception of essential government operations.

For the health and wellbeing of the Quileute people, the Quileute Reservation is now closed to public access. There will be an exception for tribal employees, caregivers, contractors, vendors, shipping and delivery, and United States Coast Guard personnel.

It is our goal to protect our community and staff and limit exposure to COVID-19. We ask that you keep safety in mind and stay home, especially if you are sick. We ask that employees and community members not engage in unnecessary travel other than for gas, groceries, and basic needs.

—CLOSED—

Effective immediately, the Quileute Tribe has closed following programs and businesses until further notice:

- Head Start/Childcare (reopening on April 27, 2020)
- Quileute Tribal School (reopening on April 27, 2020)
